This BMW-sourced "Hot-V" engine propels the full-sized flagship to 100 km/h in a sports-car-rivaling 4.6 seconds, while the addition of standard All-Wheel Steering gives it the agility of a much smaller SUV in tight Vancouver or Toronto parking garages. The "New Range Rover" design language is at its most elegant here, featuring seamless glazing, flush door handles, and hidden-until-lit taillights. Inside, the cabin is a minimalist sanctuary centered around a stunning 13.1-inch curved glass touchscreen and draped in premium Windsor leather. With its class-leading 8,201 lb towing capacity and world-first ClearSight Ground View technology, the P530 SE remains the ultimate expression of "go-anywhere" opulence for the Canadian market.
